

A mysterious villa, a motionless ship, a luxurious library, a forgotten industry, an unusual museum. At the occasion of Prof. Dr. Ernst Homburg's valedictory lecture, members of the Maastricht University research program in Science, Technology and Society Studies (MUSTS) have collected tips for cultural heritage destinations that are hidden gems, intriguing and highly worthy of visiting, but not widely known and at times hard to find. Until you have used this multi-language magnifier.
